

Stipends for the Fall Academy 2004 of the Graduate Program "Neuropsychiatry and Psychology of Aging"

Harnack-Haus, Berlin Dahlem

September 15 - 17, 2004

Participating Institutions:

- Free University Berlin (Psychology, Psychiatry, ENT) www.medizin.fu-berlin.de/psyche/Klinik
- Max-Planck-Institute for Human Development (Psychology) www.mpib-berlin.mpg.de/en/forschung/lip

Chair:

- Isabella Heuser
- Paul B. Baltes

Time and Place:

Harnack-Haus, Berlin Dahlem

September 15 - 17, 2004

To participate in this fall academy which is supported by the German Research Foundation (DFG) there will be 10 stipends for external doctoral students (Psychiatry, or Psychology). The stipends include participation fees, accommodation, and food. Travel expenses will not be covered. The fall academy will be held in English.

This fall academy will include participation of up to 25 doctoral students (Psychology, Psychiatry, or Gerontology) and 10 highly renowned lecturers from both Germany and abroad. 10 places will be reserved for external doctoral students.

Please send your application no later than August 31, 2004 to the following address:

Charité – Universitätsmedizin Berlin
Campus Benjamin Franklin
Klinik und Poliklinik für Psychiatrie und Psychotherapie
Contact for stipends
Prof. Dr. Heidi Danker Hopfe
Eschenallee 3
14050 Berlin

Tel.: 030/8445 8601 ; Fax: 030/8445 8233, mail to: hu-ping.chen@charite.de

Applications should include the following: letter of application, letter of recommendation from your PhD supervisor, a curriculum vitae, publications (if applicable) and an outline of your dissertation (max. 3 pages).

For more information about the Graduate Program please follow this link:

www.fu-berlin.de/age